

WORKMEN FEAST BENEATH A CEMETERY

DINING PLACE DOES NOT CAST A
DAMPER ON NEW YORKERS'
SPIRITS

New York, Nov. 13.—Under the crumbling monuments in St. Paul's churchyard at Broadway and Vesey street there were strange incidents yesterday afternoon. Persons who in passing glanced casually through the iron railings, saw only the same amount of graves and uncovered vaults in the silent yard. But in the sepulchral chamber formed in the last year by the human moles of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company in its invasion of Manhattan—a chamber only 10 feet beneath the graves of many early New Yorkers—there were sounds that threatened to shake the weather-beaten stones above ground and bring back indignant ghosts of gentry who have laid for a century in the shadow of the church. In the cylindrical cavity that is part of the new subway system a banquet street there were strange incidents

The Return of Blood Eruptions

No Reason Why Anyone Should Suffer
Such Disheartening Experience.

No case of poisoned blood is ever cured until the last destructive germ has been eliminated from the system. And the only remedy that is assimilated in the blood and stimulates cellular activity to overcome harmful germs is the famous blood purifier, S. S. S.

The skin is but a fine network of tiny blood vessels, and the specific action of S. S. S. is declared by eminent authorities to be a pronounced stimulation of the activity of these cells.

The reason for this is in the peculiar action of S. S. S. which enables the cells in the skin to select from the blood the nutrient it requires for regeneration.

Not only this, but it from the presence of some disturbing poison there is a local or general interference of nutrition to cause boils, carbuncles, abscesses and kidney troubles, S. S. S. so directs the local cells that the poison is rejected and eliminated from their presence.

This fact has been demonstrated year in and year out in a wonderful number of cases of severe skin eruption that had seemed to be incurable.

You can obtain S. S. S. at any well stocked drug store, if you insist upon it, but be sure you are not talked into something "just as good."

S. S. S. is prepared by the Swift Specific Co., 215 South Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

L. Cranford, contractor, in celebration of the finishing of a section of the work from Vesey street and Broadway under the graveyard to the vestry building of the chapel at Fulton and Church streets. It is a 225 feet bore.

Mr. Cranford invited as his guests all the toilers who have been employed more than a year on the work. Six hundred invitations were sent out and as far as could be learned there were no regrets.

The guests did not seem to realize the weirdness of the situation. They were hardy men with no thought for superstition. Their close proximity to more than a hundred dead persons did not disturb them.

All last winter, spring and summer men had driven their picks into the dark earth underneath the graves, at times digging within six feet of the dead. Being thoroughly at home there, they saw nothing strange in making it a dining place.

Early yesterday they began to transform the westerly end of the finished chamber into a scene of festivity. Almost 5,000 electric bulbs were strung. Tables and bunting were lowered from the street. Then came thirty kegs of beer and two thousand sandwiches.

Long tables were spread beneath the grave of Gen. Richard Montgomery, whose valorous deeds were recorded above ground in the quaint English of colonial days. A stage was built under the dust of a renowned New Yorker.

At 5 o'clock the workers gathered with no fear of jostling those who had been sleeping so many years. The festive merrymen went down winding flights of steps to their tomb of merriment without a thought that above their heads lay the bones of persons who had hated, loved and died more than a century ago.

Graveyards held no terror for those men. They danced about, drank beer in abundance, gobbled sandwiches and then gathered before the improvised stage to see a moving picture and vaudeville show almost five enough to wake the dead.

The toilers joined in Italian choruses and applauded comedians until the walls of the tunnel vibrated.

Think of the ghosts of Revolutionary heroes hearing a George Cohan song by the tin can method.

The festivities lasted two hours. Mr. Cranford had as guests Robert Ridgway, assistant chief engineer of the public service commission; George S. Coleman, chief counsel, and Leroy T. Harkness, assistant counsel.

Pain in Back and Rheumatism

Torment thousands of people daily. Don't be one of these sufferers when for so little cost you can get well rid of the cause. Foley Kidney Pills begin their good work from the very first dose. They exert so direct an action on the kidneys and bladder that the pain and torment of backache, rheumatism and kidney trouble is soon dispelled. O. G. Schaefer and Red Cross Drug Store.—Adv.

HENRY BARNABEE 70 YEARS

Boston, Nov. 14.—At his cheerful and pleasant suburban home near Boston, Henry Clay Barnabee, the veteran singer and comedian who for nearly a quarter of a century was the idol of countless theater patrons throughout the country, celebrated the seventieth anniversary of his birth today, surrounded by his numerous friends in and around Boston and overwhelmed with messages of congratulation from all parts of the country. Mr. Barnabee, who retired from stage life years ago, is still enjoying good health and his years rest lightly upon him.

Mr. Barnabee was born in Portsmouth, N. H., November 13, 1833 and after having received a public school education came to Boston where he obtained a position as a clerk in a dry goods house. He joined the Mercantile Library association and frequently took part in the entertainments of the association. It was thus that he made his debut, by reciting serious poetry at entertainments. Accidentally he discovered that he had talent as a humorist and a beautiful voice. He developed both gifts and became one of the most noted church singers in and around Boston. He made his debut as a professional singer in 1865, and after a number of years of Lyceum work, became one of the founders of the Boston Ideal Opera company in 1873. In 1887 with Tom Kari and W. H. McDonald, he organized the Bostonians, with which company he remained until he retired.

A Night of Terror

Few nights are more terrible than that of a mother looking on her child choking and gasping for breath during an attack of croup, and nothing in the house to relieve it. Many mothers have passed nights of terror in this situation. A little forethought will enable you to avoid all this. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a certain cure for croup and has never been known to fail. Keep it at hand. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

PRINTERS' COST CONGRESS

Hutchinson, Kas., Nov. 14.—The southwest printers' cost congress met here today with an attendance of members representing the printing business of half a dozen states. The president, Harry V. Bowman of Muskogee, called the gathering to order and Mayor Fouton delivered an address of welcome. The session will continue over tomorrow.

INTEREST IN OFFICER "666"

"Officer 666" when it appeared in New York and Chicago, was accorded the most flattering expressions of approval by both the press and public. It lived up to the prediction of its creators by recording the longest run ever registered in either city named for a play of its class, and now that we are to see the famous policeman at the Duncan opera house Monday night, interest in the piece has been further aroused.
